2. Presentation of projected revenues and expenses for Fiscal Year 2021 based on Campus Master Plan enrollment targets – University of Houston System – F&A-6

Dr. Carlucci presented the board with a presentation which outlined the projected revenues and expenses based on master plan enrollment targets. Four revenue and four expense scenarios for each system campus have been developed. Regent Wise asked Chancellor Khator to brief the board on this issue.

Chancellor Khator stated that higher education will dramatically change over the next ten years. In spite of the budget situation, we must continue to move the needle through clever application of staff resources and asset utilization. Our number one priority is student success, stated Dr. Khator, and we will remain conscious of that fact even in the face of the uncertainties presented to us in the form of budget constraints.
To meet enrollment targets over the next ten years, various scenarios were addressed. Faculty, staff and infrastructure are needed for enrollment growth. Below is a chart detailing the revenues, expenses and shortfall gap for each system campus.

(a) Revenue
- Level state appropriations
- Annual average tuition & fee increases of 2%

(b) Expense & Assumptions
- Faculty, staff and infrastructure fully funded to meet enrollment targets
- Average annual faculty and staff salary increases of 3%

In order to fill the shortfall gap, there are various ways we can look at this issue.
- We can change our business model;
- Is there a better way, more efficient way, for us to have student outcome learnings;
- Do we go to distance education?
- Do we go with partnerships?
- Do we teach in a cohort manner?
- Do we need to collapse colleges and/or departments?

Dr. Khator stated we are mostly likely looking at $150 million deficit. Chair Ray stated that there would be further discussion on this issue at a later date.

This item was for information only and required no board action. A complete copy of Dr. Carlucci’s presentation was filed in the Board office.

Regent Berry stated that the Audit and Compliance Committee Charter and Checklist requires the committee to conduct an annual review of the ethics and conflict of interest policies of the Board and each of the universities to ensure that the Board of Regents and each of the institutions have Conflict of Interest policies in place. They also include changes to the policies since they were last reviewed by the Audit and Compliance Committee in November 2009.

3. Annual Report regarding Sponsored Research Comparison by Funding Source, Fiscal Year 2010 and a presentation on the research of Dr. Venkat Selvamanickam – BOR-3
Dr. Long stated the total awards in FY2010 were $124.0 million, an increase of 6 percent from $117.5 million in FY2009. In FY2010, federal awards amounted to $89.2 million and state awards to $14.9 million. Other awards amounted to $20.0 million.

Proposals, awards and expenditures were addressed. In FY2009, total proposals amounted to $555,568,681 compared to FY2010 total of $600,207,692 – an increase of 8 percent.

Total awards for FY2009 totaled $110,428,559 vs. FY2010 total of $114,785,588 – a 4 percent increase.

Total expenditures for FY2009 amounted to $82,643,967 compared to FY2010 total of $90,570,123 – an increase of 10 percent.

Dr. Long introduced Dr. Venkat Selvamanickam, M.D. Anderson Chair Professor of Mechanical Engineering and Director, Applied Research Hub of Texas Center for Superconductivity at the University of Houston, who gave a presentation on the Metal Organic Chemical Vapor Deposition (MOCVD) System which the board approved the purchase and installation of this technology earlier today. The purchase of this equipment is to complete the fabrication of thin film photovoltaic cells and thermoelectric modules, in order to fully prove the commercial feasibility of the University’s underlying thin film technology in these applications. Dr. Selvamanickam’s research team has identified a novel MOCVD system with multifunctional features to fabricate various types of materials on the University’s unique templates using a reel-to-reel thin film process. The University will benefit in numerous ways from the purchase of this technology. A lengthy discussion and questions by various members of the board followed Dr. Selvamanickam’s presentation.

A complete copy of Dr. Selvamanickam’s report was filed in the Board office. This item was for information only and required no Board action.

Chair Ray introduced the next item on the agenda and asked Dr. Mark Clarke, UH Faculty Senate President to give his remarks.

4. Presentation by University of Houston Faculty Senate President, Dr. Mark Clarke on Faculty Senate Activities and by Dr. Philip Lyons, University of Houston-Downtown Faculty Senate President on UHD’s Faculty Senate Activities and Initiatives – University of Houston System – BOR-4

Before Dr. Clarke reported on Faculty Senate activities at the University of Houston, he asked Dr. Philip Lyons, Faculty Senate President at the University of Houston-Downtown, to update the Board on UHD’s Faculty Senate activities.

Below is a summary of Dr. Lyons’ remarks:

- The University of Houston-Downtown is a proud institution with a mandate to provide superior undergraduate and graduate education to the Houston area.
- Although UHD scholarship and creative activity has increased significantly in the last several years, we are and will remain primarily a teaching institution, offering high quality instruction. However, good teaching alone does not equate with student success. It is effective only if students are engaged.

- UHD has a highly diverse population which includes a high proportion of underprepared students - typical of an urban institution - particularly one with no admission standards. Most of the classes attended by UHD students work, commute and over half are from outside the Beltway. Many students attend night classes after working all day and have significant family concerns.
- Dr. Lyons addressed some faculty-driven efforts to more effectively engage students.
  - The Freshmen Retention and Graduation Program – a research-based, data-driven freshman experience program aimed at increasing FTIC retention and graduation.
- The Fall 2010 Freshman Convocation was addressed and discussed in detail.
- Distance education is increasing; more than 30% of UHD’s tenure/tenure-track faculty members have taught online. The Faculty Senate has conducted a survey on the effectiveness and needs of online courses and programs and the response rate exceeded 50%. Approval of a report on the survey is expected to occur at the next Senate meeting; followed by further interpretation of the results grounded in published literature on online teaching. A committee or task force will be formed to develop guidelines and recommendations that will assure quality online instruction.
- The Cultural Enrichment Center, directed by Dr. Jane Creighton, was addressed. This center sponsors campus visits by prominent writers, guest lecturers, artists, and musicians.
- The Center for Public Deliberation, founded by Dr. Windy Lawrence, is a collaborative, non-partisan group that encourages citizens to actively participate in the deliberative democracy process.
- The Urban Education Program received the STAR award from the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board – third UHD STAR award since 2001.
- The UHD Student Research Conference will be held in April 2011 to observe the results of undergraduate research across various disciplines.

A complete copy of Dr. Lyons’ remarks have been filed in the Board office.

Following Dr. Lyons’ remarks to the Board, Dr. Mark Clarke addressed the Board as Faculty Senate President of the University of Houston. In his last address as President, Dr. Clarke stated the Faculty Senate has been engaged in several projects and initiatives.

Below is a summary of Dr. Clarke’s remarks:

- Several initiatives were addressed:
  - The newly formed Center for Teaching Excellence and the preparation for posting all undergraduate class syllabi and instructor of record on the web. Dr. Clarke reported that both of these projects have come to fruition with the new Center for Teaching Excellence in full operation this semester and over 95% compliance rate for posting CDs and syllabi on the reporting day which is the seventh day of classes.
  - Dr. Clarke wanted to publicly thank all of his fellow faculty members for responding to this request and also the large number of faculty members who have actively taken part in the Center for Teaching Excellence. This type of initiative, specifically our CTE, is one of the most cost effective ways to achieve our student success goals of greater student engagement, retention, and enhance graduation. The Faculty Senate has taken a lead in this area and will continue to provide support, not only to the growing CTE but to any initiative designed to enhance our overall student success goals.

- Dr. Clarke reported that the Faculty Senate led Accountability Task Force in conjunction with the University of Houston Teaching Excellence Awards Committee and the Faculty Board of Directors of the newly formed Center for Teaching Excellence recently provided the provost with recommendations concerning a series of new teaching awards which came on line this academic year. The new program raises the number of university level Teaching Excellence Awards from a maximum of nine last year to a total of 20 this year with the average value of those awards rising from $5,000 to over $11,000 per award. The new program places greater emphasis on rewarding individual teaching excellence especially in the areas such as the university academic core. While two of the new awards are focused on recognizing faculty who take a collective and collaborative approach rather than an individual approach to teaching excellence in those class sequences that have historically had low completion rates and then consequently impacted our graduation rate and student success elements. Dr. Clarke does not believe that monetary rewards are a major factor which drive faculty to excel in any of their academic endeavors; however, the significant increase in both the number and the amount of these awards is a clear and unequivocal signal to both our students and faculty that teaching excellence is and will continue to be valued by the university community as a whole.

- There are several new initiatives which the Faculty Senate is currently working on:
  1. Faculty Senate has taken the lead in revisiting the UH Faculty Workload Policy; to develop more guidelines more in line with a nationally recognized research university. The task has begun but the clear consensus of the Senate is that any new Workload Policy should reflect the overarching principle that each tenure or tenure-tracked faculty member’s total workload be a reflection of all three historical responsibilities of the academy namely: teaching, research and service. However, if a faculty member has for whatever reason reduced their efforts in any one of these areas, then there should be an effort to increase their commitment in the remaining areas to compensate for that reduction.
  2. In conjunction with the provost, the Faculty Senate has recently begun the development of a more proactive, post-tenure review process which incorporates an automatic review after specific periods of time for ranked tenured faculty. Both of these initiatives will require careful consideration and review by the Faculty Senate, and Dr. Clarke is hopeful that they can reach an agreement on these new policies sometime prior to the end of the academic year.

- The state budget crisis has raised a concern and uneasiness amongst the faculty at large. Dr. Clarke assured the Board that the Faculty Senate has and will continue to work collaboratively with administration to assure that our joint commitment to UH’s teaching and research missions remain strong even under these difficult circumstances. Budget cuts must be made strategically and not across the board. A Budgetary Advisory Group has been formed by Dr. John Antel, Senior Vice Chancellor and Provost for the University of Houston and includes three Faculty Senate representatives whose charge will be to evaluate all potential opportunities to generate additional revenue or to reduce costs to offset the impending cuts. This group will also be charged with developing a set of guiding principles based on a long term academic and research goal designed to both inform and guide any budgetary decisions that may have to be made concerning academic program funding.

- Dr. Clarke mentioned that Dr. Monica McHenry will be the new President of the Faculty Senate at the University of Houston beginning January 1, 2011.

A complete copy of Dr. Clarke’s remarks has been filed in the Board office. This item was for information only and required no Board action.

Chair Ray moved to the next item on the agenda, the Chancellor’s Report.
