

University of Houston System Student Pathways Program Application

The University of Houston System Student Pathways Program is designed to make all UH System institutions accessible to all UH System students. Effective in Fall 2011, an undergraduate student in any of the four UH System universities, with the approval of their academic department, will be able to take up to 6 hours of courses toward their degree, at any of the universities. The courses must apply to the student's degree program at the home institution and cannot exceed a total of 6 credit hours during the student's academic career. To apply, please fill in all required fields below, print the completed form, and submit to your institution's official Pathways Program representative.
